

Heartland Presbytery Meeting Highlights June 20, 2009

The Presbytery gathered with prayer at the Tarkio Presbyterian Church of Tarkio, MO, under the leadership of Moderator Elder Jack Schrimsher from the Parkville Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Jim Gordon preached during morning worship on the theme of Eucharist as grace. Rev. Rachel Lancey celebrated the sacrament. The $900 offering was equally divided between the Fairfax/Westboro/Tarkio Food Pantry and the Community Emergency Fund of the Harold Thomas Center for Reconciliation.

The presbytery examined and enrolled as candidates for ministry of the Word and sacrament: Molly Dowell Baum from First, Atchison, KS and Abbey Patterson from Village Church, Prairie Village, KS.

The presbytery examined for membership Rev. James Gale to be pastor of the Shawnee Presbyterian Church in Shawnee, KS. His call was approved.

The presbytery heard two “Minutes for Mission”. The first was a reminder to order 2010 Mission Yearbooks through the presbytery this summer and the second was to invite every church to send a member to the 2010 Stewardship Kaleidoscope Conference.

Charles Spencer, Executive Presbyter, invited the presbytery to attend the “Technology for Growing Churches” workshop on Sunday, July 12, 3:00-6:00 p.m. at the Northminster Presbyterian Church in Kansas City, MO.

The presbytery had first readings of the 2010 Operating Budget, the 2010 Mission Budget and Amendments to the Manual of Administrative Operations. Comments on those documents are welcomed and encouraged.

Presbyterian Women attending the Church –Wide Gathering in July were commissioned and the banners for each of the 22 churches of Maya Quiche Presbytery were dedicated.
